Sponsors Make it All Happen!

Why Sponsor?

For exposure to an engaged audience and the opportunity to promote your brand and your products across multiple channels. Anticipation is building for the exciting inaugural year (2017) of the PA Tea Festival being held in the charming gardens of The Rosemary House in Mechanicsburg, PA. This event is uniquely situated only 12 miles from the capital city of Harrisburg, PA, and is under 40 miles from the secondary cities of York, Gettysburg, Hershey, PA and Frederick, MD. It is less than 100 miles and easily accessible from metropolitan cities of Baltimore, MD, Washington, DC and Philadelphia, PA. The PA TEA FESTIVAL will be a destination event for tea enthusiasts within multiple markets and is the only beverage festival in PA that focuses uniquely on TEA. Quality Tea!

About the Show Promoters:

Nancy Reppert is the proprietor of Sweet Remembrances Tea Room. Sweet Remembrances is a traditional tea room that was opened in 1990! She has been a main stay and educator of tea in this area for over 25 years. Nancy Reppert was one of the Founders of the Mid Atlantic Tea Business Association in 2005 and is currently a board member of MATBA.

Susanna Reppert Brill is the owner of The Rosemary House and Gardens. The Rosemary House is a herb and spice specialty shop that was opened in 1968 by her mother Bertha Reppert. The Rosemary House is one of America's oldest herb shops and continues to be a leader in the herb industry. Also one of the founders of MATBA and a member of the Herb Society of America. Susanna's festival organizational experience includes being vendor coordinator for the PA Herb Festival and "Green Queen" of the Mechanicsburg Earth Day Festival in addition to producing our Annual Fairy Festival now in its 23rd year.

You will not regret working with this dynamic team of sisters!

In order to gain an additional six months of exposure for your company review our reasonable packages and make your commitment soon! Financial obligations are not required until fiscal year 2017. Thank you for considering sponsorship of The PA Tea Festival!
